

Dear students!

Here is a very useful French site with videos and interactive exercises for the beginners, just click on the link below (the site is free, it is produced by a governmental educational TV channel, TV5):

<http://www.tv5.org/cms/chaine-francophone/enseigner-apprendre-francais/Premiere-classe/p-2040-1g0-Homepage-Premiere-Classe.htm>

The screenshot shows the TV5MONDE website interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the TV5MONDE logo. Below it, a navigation bar includes 'Accueil', 'Apprendre le français', and 'Première classe'. A language selector shows 'Language : english'. The main content area is titled 'Apprendre.TV' and 'Première classe'. A central banner reads 'Start learning French with TV5MONDE!' and features a video thumbnail of a man and a woman. To the left of the video, there is a 'Select a theme.' menu with 'Greetings' and 'Hobbies'. A yellow box over the video lists topics: 'Introducing yourself', 'Giving out personal information', 'Talking about those closest to you', 'Saying where you're from', and 'Activity Evaluation'. On the right, there are three sidebar boxes: 'Getting started', 'Help', and 'Tricks to help you learn'.

This screenshot shows a lesson page on the TV5MONDE website. The page title is 'Première classe' and the sub-page is 'Greetings / Saying where you're from'. The main content area is divided into three numbered sections:

- 1 Grammar: à, au, en, aux + the name of a city or country
  - 1. Comprehension
  - 2. Identifying
  - 3. Structuring
  - 4. Practising
- 2 Vocabulary: Nationalities
  - 1. Comprehension
  - 2. Identifying
  - 3. Structuring
  - 4. Practising
- 3 Pronunciation: Nationality in the masculine and feminine forms

On the right side, there are three sidebar boxes: 'My Logbook', 'Help', and 'Tricks to help you learn'.
